hereinafter 'the LUFC', on the one hand,

hereinafter 'the prospective parents', on the other hand, the following has been agreed:

- An agreement was concluded between the LUFC and the prospective parents regarding the storing of supernumerary embryos resulting from an IVF/ICSI treatment of the prospective parents which have been preserved at the LUFC since that time.
- The LUFC will take due care in the preservation of the embryos. The LUFC is not liable for the loss of preserved embryos in cases of force majeure (such as fire, theft, power cuts or other external causes).
- By law, the storing period for supernumerary embryos frozen with a view to fulfilling a current or future desire to have children is five years. This period started on the day on which the embryos were frozen.
- The prospective parents hereby expressly request to extend the storing period by five years. The storing period is thus extended due to special circumstances until/...../..... A fixed fee will be charged for this. This amount is 256,31 euros on 1 January 2018. This amount will be adjusted on the 1st of January each year in line with the health index (<http://statbel.fgov.be/nl/statistieken/cijfers/economie/consumptieprijzen/gezondheidsindex>) in December of the preceding year.
- On the expiry of this period, the LUFC will carry out the instructions given by the prospective parents in the most recent agreement on storing of supernumerary embryos.

Drawn up in duplicate in Leuven on/...../....., one copy being intended for the LUFC and the other for the prospective parents.
